

Extensive research to identify and validate essential skills required in the workplace has been conducted by the Government of Australia and other entities.

To help understand how to identify the knowledge, qualifications and core skills required for various careers, please explore the websites listed below.

ANZSCO

ASCO was published in 1997. It is now ANZSCO and accessed online:

<http://ow.ly/AIF830kTBVj>

Australian Government classifications

Classifications have been developed to provide a consistent platform for classifying jobs.

<https://www.apsc.gov.au/work-level-standards-aps-level-and-executive-level-classifications>

<https://www.australia.gov.au/information-and-services/jobs-and-workplace>

A-Z occupation explorer

<https://www2.jobsandskills.wa.gov.au/careerexploration/occupations/Pages/OccupationsA-Z.aspx>

Job Outlook

Offers information on all the occupations listed in the ANSCO. It includes an overview of the occupation, prospects by State, skills & knowledge and work environment

<https://joboutlook.gov.au/Default.aspx>

Jobs & Skills WA (previously Career Centre)

Offers information on occupations in WA, including skills, E&T pathways, and labour force availability

<https://www.jobsandskills.wa.gov.au/career-exploration>

MySkills

Offers information about certificate courses/certificate level qualifications (i.e. TAFE and RTOs).

However, you can search using occupation titles and matches those occupations with E&T courses. It enables job seekers to quickly establish what level of Certificate course is required for a particular occupation level.

<https://www.myskills.gov.au>